COURSE TRAINER

Dr Paul Chui is a qualified practicing Senior Consultant forensic pathologist. He is accredited as a specialist in pathology by the Specialist Accreditation Board, of the Ministry of Health Singapore. He is also a gazette forensic pathologist under the Coroner's Act 2010. In 2012, Dr Chui returned to his professional roots, relinquishing his other administrative duties save the appointment of Director, Forensic Medicine Division, to focus on further professional capability and staff development within FMD. In 2013, Dr Chui was concurrently appointed Chief, Forensic Medicine. In the course of his career, Paul had also been attached to the Ministry of Health and had, concurrent with his professional work, been involved in the implementation of Casemix (DRG) in Singapore (1997 -2001).
